

MEDICAL AND HEALTH SCIENCES
SCHOOL OF NURSING

School of Nursing

PhD Seminar Day

Tuesday 23 October 2018
FMHS Grafton, 501-110

Start Time	Programme
9.00am	Sandie McCarthy Head of School	Welcome
Associate-Professor Robyn Dixon will be the initial discussant after each student presentation, helping us with her expertise and experience by providing her thoughts on their research and presentation before discussion is opened to the floor.
9.05am	Cecilia Wong-Cornall	Policy and systematic support for the practice of family care-giving in older adults with complex health needs in primary health care
9.35am	Deborah Raphael	Psychological and social factors associated with the survivorship of haematological cancers in New Zealand
10.05am	Joerg Kussmaul	An investigation of occupational health and safety working conditions for nurses in comparison to the quality outcome for patients in nursing care homes and district care services
10.30 –11am	Morning Tea

11.05am	Miriam James-Scotter	An investigation into the benefit of implementing a staff wellbeing measurement tool in a surgical setting
11.35am	An Yu	Social Investment National Evaluation (SINE)
12.05pm	Andrew Lynch	Inter-professional collaborative practices and reflective practices in primary health care contexts: A critical hermeneutics discourse analysis of the stories of 20 people in two different regions.
12.35pm	Lunch
1.15pm	Panel: Kim Ward Dianne Marshall Melody Smith	How to prepare for final stages and panel discussion
2.15pm	Trevor Sherwin Associate Dean - Postgraduate	A faculty perspective
2.45pm	Sandie McCarthy	Final Comments
3pm	Social time
4pm	Finish	